Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2018. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English. Brand new Book. This book is for my children and grandchildren. It begins with an autobiographical sketch and includes readings that have strongly influenced my thinking about the big questions of living and dying. Not all these readings are about near-death experiences (NDEs), but all should be read in the Light of NDEs. For although I have not had an NDE, the Light experienced by those who have (including my father) now illuminates my life as well as my thoughts. At 75, I now see my life as a wandering search for wholeness in the compelling worlds envisioned by secular scientists and spiritual teachers. The boy who excelled in science, and thought he would be a physicist, instead failed as a Christian preacher and became a critical teacher. Only now, at the end of my life, have I discovered what NDEs reveal about both science and spirituality. In these readings, physicians and other scientists consider how some survivors of cardiac arrest or accidents that have stopped the heart (and thus blood flow to the brain) nonetheless report vivid memories of Light and Love. This evidence falsifies the scientific assumption that consciousness is simply a product of brain activity, and verifies that the loss of ordinary consciousness at least for some enables an experience of transcending meaning. Cardiologist and NDE researcher Pim van Lommel reports that the "enhanced consciousness" during an NDE includes "nonlocal aspects of interconnectedness, such as memories from earliest childhood up until the crisis that caused the NDE and sometimes even visions of the future. It offers the chance of communication with the thoughts and feelings of people who were involved in past events or with the consciousness of deceased friends and relatives." To explain NDEs,...
